Carry the Message Event Enjoyed by All
-- by Alan T.

On October 26, District 4 General Service hosted a morning of fellowship and education to highlight the many opportunities available to us in Sarasota to help the alcoholic who still suffers. The morning began with pastries and coffee, followed by members sharing their experience with service and their work on our eight local committees.

We heard about efforts to educate the professional community, carrying the message into jails and institutions, securing our archives, reaching those with accessibility needs, highlighting our literature and efforts to bring the message to the Spanish community. Most of all we heard about the joy and strength these efforts have given to each member's sobriety.

Each committee had a display highlighting their efforts. Archives displayed a 1st Edition Big Book personally signed by Bill Wilson, and Literature unveiled a traveling Literature display to be used at future events. Following a delicious lunch, we were blessed to have two of our past delegates, Simonne C. and Kathy G., do the honorary cutting of our anniversary cake, celebrating 80 years since the Big Book was first published. The cake decoration was outstanding.

We are truly blessed to have so many dedicated trusted servants in District 4, and we always welcome new members to ensure the hand of AA will always be there.

Note: Many thanks go to Alan T. for organizing and emceeing the event, along with Mick G., the committee chairs and all the volunteers. It was a fantastic event! The program can be found in the online version of the newsletter- Ed.

SPONSORSHIP -- by Maribeth D.

I chose my first sponsor because she was a snappy dresser. She wore stylish clothes and accessorized well. I envisioned us ensconced in a cozy corner at Starbucks having deep and meaningful conversations, followed immediately by shopping.

After she stopped returning my calls, and a friend informed me that she had relapsed, I determined that my criteria for selecting sponsors was, perhaps, a bit faulty.

AA literature defines a sponsor as "An alcoholic who has made some progress in the recovery program and shares that experience on a continuous, individual basis with another alcoholic who is attempting to attain sobriety through AA."

The model is the same for other recovery programs such as Al-Anon, NA, CA, and countless others.

My own personal definition of a sponsor is "Someone who introduces and assists in the maintenance of a sober lifestyle through the 12 Steps." Along the way, we become bonded in spirit.

The book Alcoholics Anonymous, Alcoholics Anonymous World Services, Inc. states that "We are people who normally would not mix. But there exists among us a fellowship, a friendliness, and an understanding which is indescribably wonderful...The feeling of having shared in a common peril is one element in the powerful cement which binds us..."

I have seen men with advanced degrees being schooled by construction workers. The latter knew how to live a sober lifestyle, and the former wanted what they had. All pretense of income status and lifestyle dissolves when we are fighting for our lives.

In AA I have learned to check myself with the phrase “It is not all about me.” I’ve found that most, if not all, of my resentments and acute reactions of anger and anxiety, have occurred when my thinking and actions focus as though the entire situation is about me.

In learning to look at the other person or group’s behavior with compassion, trying to see what the experience is in those others’ shoes, it becomes clear how little any of it is about me. This perspective allows me to formulate a better approach and solution if one even seems appropriate, which it often doesn’t. I frequently skip the forgiveness piece, going directly to acceptance because I discover there is nothing to forgive - no offense happened. It’s just others doing their own thing as I’m doing mine.

Looking back on past resentments in this way gave me a gentle but profound release, clearing up the ones that lingered despite many sincere efforts to let go. Thinking about what it might be like in the other person’s shoes, now on a daily basis, heads off conflict and all the angst that comes along with it. I am so grateful for AA and all it teaches me.

My First Sober Christmas

I was several months sober in 1975; my phone was ringing off the hook; a host of new AA friends were keeping my spirits alive and happy. I was going to meetings all around Los Angeles as often as possible. My spare time was spent hanging at the clubhouse at 26th and Broadway, in Santa Monica. There I felt safe because the talk was generally focused on one subject: SOBRIETY. Although my family was back in Indiana, I was seldom lonely, and I seemed to be winning the battle against that first drink. The goose seemed to be hanging high! (A Bill Wilson saying.)

However, I hadn’t experienced a sober Christmas season for over twenty five years, and there existed that hidden terror of the next drink. I seemed to be successful at pushing it away, like the boy in the Big Book who was whistling in the dark to keep up his spirits. I pushed harder to keep away those terrifying thoughts. But, like a muscle, the harder I shoved it, the stronger it got. Christmas and New Year’s Eve were around the corner, and fear grew to near terror. Maybe I could get past this, but what about the next time? Don’t think about it! Don’t think about it! If I think it-I’ll drink it! The fear grew paramount. Was I headed for deep chicken fat trouble? Near disaster: I marched into a Hollywood bar, after a Christmas parade, and almost ordered a gin and tonic. Thank God I didn’t! The next week, a new sponsor led me through the Twelve Step process, and I, for the first time, started living the actual program of action of Alcoholics Anonymous! By the summer of 1976 the obsession to drink was lifted and has never returned.

If I were asked to offer personal experience for someone new, it would be to find a sponsor who can help them through the Twelve Step process, pronto. The fellowship is good, but a vital spiritual experience is the ultimate solution. I believe that lots of meetings were very vitally important for me those early months, but as is often heard: “Survival on the fellowship is untreated alcoholism.” But also: “Rarely have we seen a person fail who has thoroughly followed these steps.”

It warms my heart when I see big, burly, 'Al' in his grimy work boots embrace 'Joe' in his Brooks Brothers suit.

As our sponsor guides us through the recovery process, we get a new set of spiritual eyes. Sharing our deepest fears, letting go of our resentments, and learning to forgive enables us to see each other through the eyes of recovery. We become each other’s good Samaritan.

Being a sponsor is equally important. As we share our spiritual toolkit with a newcomer, our own tools are sharpened, and we continue to learn more about ourselves. We finally feel that peace that we had been chasing all along.

I like to think that the spirit of love and tolerance which pervades a successful recovery relationship is similar to how we will all relate to each other when we get to that great meeting in the sky. That is one reason I am a grateful, recovering alcoholic.
Meeting on the Move: Women in the Solution

Women in the Solution currently meets at 10am on Saturdays at First Congregation Church. But we’re happy to announce that our meeting has grown so big that we’ve run out of space at this location.

As of January 1, 2020, we will meet at our new location - St. Wilifred’s Church on Wilkensen Road, Sarasota. The meeting will continue to be on Saturday mornings at 10am. We are very excited to be moving! Our first meeting in January will be on Saturday the 4th. Please join us.

In April of 1992, the Monday Nite Men’s Group (MNMG) was born. Initially, it was just a meeting that started when the old Mid Town Group was dissolving. Some of those involved in starting that first meeting were Ford E., Billy “The Hook” C., and Bill K. Of those first members, only Bill K. remains. He is the undisputed “elder statesman” of MNMG and is held in fond esteem by all the members.

The initial meeting place was the Harvest Tabernacle on Lime Avenue. Not long after that meeting started, it was decided to become a group with a GSR, Intergroup Rep, and to register with the New York World Headquarters. We revere AA’s 12 Traditions and routinely contribute to Intergroup, Central Office, and NYO.

It wasn’t long before the fledgling group outgrew the available space at Harvest Tabernacle and moved to First Brethren Church where it has operated for the past 25 years. The history of the group is memorialized on the lectern used for the speaker meetings where there are small plates in remembrance of members who have passed on. No birth date, hyphen and date of death though. Nay, MNMG memorializes them by their name, sobriety date, and how many years of recovery they had when they died.

The Monday Nite Men’s Group now sponsors four meetings a week at that location. Monday at 7:30pm is a discussion meeting, Tuesday at 5:30pm is a Step (12 & 12) Meeting, Thursday at 5:30pm is a Big Book Meeting, and Friday at 6:00pm is a Grapevine Meeting. The meeting hall is around back. We love to see new faces, and we have great cookies! Come check us out. We look forward to meeting you.
